

June 23, 2010

Welcome to the June 23, 2010, issue of the CorasWorks Community Update. As we head into the steamy summer months, Idea Management and PPM continue to steam full speed ahead. Don't miss our upcoming opportunities to see these great solutions and learn more about them.

News and Events

- Webcast: Idea Management - We've scheduled an Idea Management webcast for Wednesday, July 14, at 2pm EDT. Join us to learn more about the concept of Idea Management and the value it provides to any organization. You'll also see how the CorasWorks Idea Management Solution adds structure and organization to idea capture, review, and selection. Click here to sign up for the webcast.
- PPM Seminars - Our PPM seminars in Reston, VA, and New York City were resounding successes. So, we're taking PPM on the road again. Watch for upcoming events in Boston and Texas.

Applications/Solutions

Project Portfolio Management - Our PPM Application is still our most popular and most downloaded application. It is a complete solution for managing your projects and portfolios on SharePoint:

- Integrate with MS Project - Using MS Project to plan and manage your tasks and projects. See how the PPM seamlessly integrates with MS Project.
- Mobility - We've "mobilized" PPM so you never miss important deadlines again. Works with almost any mobile device, including iPhone, Blackberry, Android, Windows Mobile, and more.
- Available for 2010 - If you've already moved to SharePoint 2010, or just want to mess around with it, PPM is available for the 2010 platform, too.
- Jump Start - Love PPM, but need help getting it implemented? Our Jump Start services bundle includes a few days of services to get you up and running with PPM. Request more information at info@corasworks.net.
- See PPM in conjunction with Idea Management - You already know about our Idea Management solution. Now see how you can use PPM in conjunction with Idea Management to implement all those great ideas. Click here to request a demo.

Blogs

William's Blog - As usual, William has been prolific in his blogging. Check out his latest posts on Idea Management and our CorasWorks Idea Management on SharePoint (Cim) solution:

- Cim for New Market Innovation: Tap User Stories - Read how Cim can be leveraged to tap your workforce to get vivid User Stories that fuel new market innovations and drive new product innovation.
- Cim for New Products: Primer - New product innovation is a core business scenario for Cim.
- RFP Response Idea and Input on Cim for Proposal Management - Our creative customers are starting to enlighten us with not-so-obvious Cim "applications." Here is a good one - tapping into your workforce to generate ideas, input and information for a response to an RFP and pushing it into your Proposal Management response app.
